

Ask and Switch

What is the exercise?	Students use cards to prompt short paired discussions
Planning and materials	Writing out question cards; Cards
How many students?	6+
How it works	Each student begins with a question card. Students pair up and ask each other the questions on their cards. They then switch cards and repeat the process with new partners until the time is up.
Adaptations and Differentiations	Adaptation: Students have topic cards but have to think up their own questions Adaptation: Students are given opinions on their topics and have to respond to answers accordingly
Best used	As a plenary; as a starter In primary schools; In secondary school To introduce a topic; To develop thinking and learning on a topic; To revise a topic
Your notes:	